1. PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Excerpts of my speech made at a dinner on 22nd July, 2006:

"Everyone receives but not everyone gives. Sharing is something that we all can and should unlearn in today's materialistic world. It is really up to us to prioritize that which we want to share and the extent of it. It could be money, time, service, knowledge or skills with people who need them. Surely each of us has the capacity to share whatever little or much that we have. We all receive from different sources – be it material wealth or spiritual and emotional input.

Give and it will come back to you. And give generously. Giving often unlocks life's storehouse of blessings- to those who receive but even more to those who give"

2. HON. SECRETARY'S COLUMN

7. JUNIOR'S SECTION
MATHEMATICS FOR LIFE

From a strictly mathematical viewpoint:

What Equals 100%? Another way of putting it, what does it mean to give MORE than 100%? Ever wonder about those people who say they are giving more than 100%? We have all been in situations where someone wants you to give over 100%. How about achieving 101%? What equals 100% in life? Here's a little mathematical formula that might help you answer these questions:

IF...
A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z
Is represented as:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26.
Then:
H-A-R-D-W-O-R-K
 $8+1+18+4+23+15+18+11 = 98\%$
and
K-N-O-W-L-E-D-G-E
 $11+14+15+23+12+5+4+7+5 = 96\%$
But,
A-T-T-I-T-U-D-E
 $1+20+20+9+20+21+4+5 = 100\%$
Aren't you impressed?

NOW, look how far the love of God will take you -
L-O-V-E-O-F-G-O-D
 $12+15+22+5+15+6+7+15+4 = 101\%$

Therefore, one can conclude with mathematical certainty that: while HARD WORK and KNOWLEDGE are important and will even get you close, and that ATTITUDE will get you there, it's the LOVE OF GOD that will put you over the top!

VISIT FROM GOD

A lady went to her mail box and there was only one letter. She picked it up and looked at it before opening, but then she looked at the envelope again. There was no stamp, no postmark, only her name and address. She read the letter:

Dear Lady,
I'm going to be in your neighbourhood Saturday afternoon and I'd like to stop by for a visit.
Love Always,
GOD

Her hands were shaking as she placed the letter on the table. "Why would GOD want to visit me? I'm nobody special. I don't have anything to offer." With that thought, she remembered her empty kitchen cabinets. "Oh my goodness, I really don't have anything to offer. I'll have to run down to the store and buy something for dinner." She reached for her purse and counted out its contents. Five dollars and forty cents! "Well, I can get some bread and cold cuts, at least." She threw on her coat and hurried out the door. A loaf of bread and a carton of milk...leaving her with grand total of twelve cents to last her until Monday. Nonetheless, she felt good as she headed home, her meagre offerings tucked under her arm.

"Hey lady, can you help us, lady?" She had been so absorbed in her dinner plans; she hadn't even noticed two figures huddled in the alleyway. A man and a woman, both of them dressed in little more than rags. "Look lady, I ain't got a job, ya know, and my wife and I have been living out here in the street, and, well, now it's getting cold and we're getting kinda hungry and, well, if you could help us, lady, we'd really appreciate it." She looked at them both. They were dirty, they smelled bad and frankly, she was certain that they could get some kind of work if they really wanted to. "Sir, I'd like to help you, but I'm a poor woman myself. All I have is some bread, and I'm having an important guest for dinner tonight and I was planning on serving that to Him." "Yeah, well, okay lady, I understand. Thanks anyway." The man put his arm around the woman's shoulders, turned and headed back into the alley. As she watched them leave, She felt a familiar twinge in her heart.

"Sir, wait!" The couple stopped and turned as she ran down the alley after them. "Look, why don't you take this food. I'll figure out something else to serve my guest." She handed the man her grocery bag. "Thank you lady. Thank you very much!" "Yes, thank you!" It was the man's wife, and Ruth could see now that she was shivering. "You know, I've got another coat at home. Here, why don't you take this one?" She unbuttoned her jacket and slipped it over the woman's shoulders. Then smiling, she turned and walked back to the street...without her coat and with nothing to serve her guest. "Thank you lady! Thank you very much!"

She was chilled by the time she reached her front door, and worried too. GOD was coming to visit and she didn't have anything to offer Him. She fumbled through her purse for the door key. But as she did, she noticed another envelope in her mailbox. "That's odd. The mailman doesn't usually come twice in one day." She took the envelope out of the box and opened it.

Dear Lady,
It was so good to see you again. Thank you for the lovely meal.
And thank you, too, for the beautiful coat.
Love Always,
GOD

The air was still cold, but even without her coat, she no longer noticed.

PLIGHT OF A SOUL

When Rama decided to end His Avatar career and walked into the flooded Sarayu river, a dog too followed the concourse. When asked why it had attached itself to the entourage, it said, "I desire to enter Heaven with you all. I was, in my previous life, a full-fledged yogi; but I slipped and fell from the straight path of self-control, I became the slave of conceit; I expounded the Vedas as my fancy dictated, in strange but attractive ways; so, I have now become this animal that takes delight in barking, biting and baying. The persons who encouraged me then by praise, are now the fleas and flies that crowd on my skin and pester me. Help me, Lord, to escape from this disgrace; I have worked out my karma; I have lived out my sentence." That is the consequence of irreverence shown to the Vedas; study them reverentially and with a view to practice what they teach. Desisting from practice, is itself irreverence.
